

Alonzo Parker

Virginia International Terminals

Alonzo Parker is a safety leader with extensive operational experience in the Marine and Rail space. He has developed and implemented health, safety programs that protect employees, enhance compliance, and drive operational excellence. Proven track record of building strong safety cultures, identifying and reducing risks, and partnering with leadership to achieve sustainable results.