

Brianna Barnes

Virginia Port Authority

Brianna Barnes serves as Director of Contracts and Compliance for the Virginia Port Authority, where she advises on legal, regulatory, and operational matters affecting The Port of Virginia. With more than a decade of legal experience, she works across a broad range of issues, including maritime risk management, labor relations, commercial contracting, and regulatory compliance. Brianna has also presented on maritime emergency preparedness, cybersecurity, and ports of refuge, emphasizing the importance of collaboration and proactive risk management across the maritime industry.