EXPERTISE

Chase is a Client Advisor and fourth-generation insurance professional with nearly two decades of industry experience. He specializes in layered property placements, including but not limited to municipality and public entity, as well as in energy and marine risks. Chase enjoys partnering with clients to serve as a true advisor on their teams, in order to help them grow their business and realize their dreams.

Prior to joining Lockton, Chase was Partner and Energy & Marine Practice Leader at Acrisure. He began his career as a Commercial Property Adjuster with Travelers before moving to Carlisle Insurance, his family's agency since 1925, where he spent more than 18 years as a Vice President and Broker.

Chase earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management from Texas A&M University. He also holds the designations of Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC), Certified Marine Insurance Professional (CMIP), Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU), and Energy Risk and Insurance Specialist (ERIS).
