

Brianna Barnes, Director, Compliance and Contracts, The Port of Virginia

Brianna L. Barnes serves as legal counsel for the Port of Virginia, where she advises on maritime operations, regulatory compliance, litigation matters, and incident response. She has been with the Port for nearly five years, supporting risk management and interagency coordination across terminal operations. Prior to joining the Port, Ms. Barnes spent six years in private practice, focusing on complex civil litigation and commercial matters. She brings a pragmatic, solutions-oriented approach to complex maritime and infrastructure challenges.
