

Christian Corbo
Deputy Director | Emergency Response

Bio

As a retired Patrol Lieutenant with over 26 years serving the California Department of Fish and Wildlife in the Office of Spill Prevention and Response (CA OSPR), Christian has extensive experience in law enforcement, emergency response, crisis management, maritime security, and upper-level leadership positions.

At GMS, he oversees response efforts on the West Coast, Alaska, Hawaii, and Pacific territories with a network of incident management professionals. Christian also serves as a Response Manager, Qualified Individual, and Incident Commander for the GMS Incident and Spill Management Teams.

