

Thorsten Schmittberger GM Port Operations – Security ACL G4

Born in Hamburg, Germany, Thorsten Schmittberger started his career as a Hanseatic Shipbroker in 1991. He worked most of his career for Atlantic Container, a Grimaldi group company since 2004.

For the past 29 years he has shared his Maritime Industry knowledge from ACL's US headquarter in New Jersey. Moving through various departments within the company, focus continues to be on commercial cargo movement, coupled with Cargo, Vessel and Terminal Quality Management. He is the main liaison to Port Authorities, US and Canada Customs and Coastguard and other Law Enforcement

ACL is the oldest operating container line in the world, in continuous service since 1967 between North America and North Europe with the world's largest combination Container-RORO ships. ACL is owned by the Grimaldi Group of Italy. It is registered in Sweden and headquartered in Westfield, NJ.
